Reminiscing My Journey as a Teacher…

Everyday has been a new learning experience with the art. I started teaching with the motive of sharing what I had learned from natyam to as many young minds as possible. I gradually started realising that through teaching I was able to discover several aspects of natyam, and it has been a joyful teaching-learning experience for me. As a performer, the connection with the audience and their happiness after watching my natyam gave me contentment. As a teacher, the most joyous moment was when my students pursued the art form and were appreciated. I must admit that teaching an artform is a very challenging task, but at the end of the day watching the world of natyam flourish in my students mind and soul makes me the happiest person.

I am forever indebted to the love and support of my dear mother Smt Lakshmi and my brother Sri Baskar. They were my pillars of support, and made me what I am today. Heartfelt thanks to my husband- Sri B P Haribabu and my family for their constant support and encouragement. Sincere gratitude to Smt Kalanidhi Narayanan, Guru Sri Vempati Chinnasatyam, Sri J Sooryanarayana Murthy, and Sri Jai Kishore Mosalikanti and all my inspirations in this artform for guiding me and for being the footsteps that paved my path in natyam.

“Not all the fingers are the same”. As the saying goes, every dancer has a unique talent. I strive hard to make all my students realise their uniqueness and potential. Along with natyam my students learn thalam, itihasam, puranas and moral values to impart “Poorna Vidhya”. I have been blessed with wonderful students who have been of great support to me. I always try to make Divyanjali their second home.
I am very happy to have received the love, encouragement and help from all the parents of my students, throughout these 30 years. Divyanjali has faced several ups and downs in these 30 years. I would like to thank each and everyone who has been there during the good and hard times of Divyanjali. Nothing is impossible when the Almighty supports us. With “His” divine blessings I will continue my humble efforts to teach natyam and spread the joy of this Bhakthi margam.

The Beginning

Divyanjali Dance School was established in 1994 by Dr. S. Divyasena and since then, the school has come a long way in producing dancers of remarkable talent and has earned itself a place among the best dance schools for training in Bharatanatyam, in Chennai. The school, to its credit, inaugurated its own workspace in the year 2004 in the presence of Smt. Chithra Visveshwaran and Smt. Nandhini Ramani.

The well formulated syllabus that the school follows in imparting training, both in the theoretical and practical aspects of dance, has been carefully drafted by the founder, keeping in mind the requirements and abilities of students of various age groups. The prescribed syllabus has been published as a book “Essence and Essentials of Dance” authored by Dr. S. Divyasena in the year 2006. Besides the practical training and the theoretical aspect, students of Divyanjali also receive a special focus on Laya, the rhythmical aspect of dance from Shri. B. P. Haribabu, a leading percussionist and secretary of Divyanjali Trust. Abinaya, the expressive aspect in Bharatanatyam, is imparted in the children by creatively engaging them in the teaching process.

Accomplishments

Divyanjali Dance School got registered as a Trust in the year 2011 and received grant from Government of India and Tamil Isai Sangam with the help of which Divyanjali produced a couple of thematic productions, “Nava vidha Sambandham” and “Andal Vaibhavam”.
Divyanjali dance school celebrated its 70th Arangetram in the year 2026. Dr. S. Divyasena has also conducted an Arangetram abroad.

Divyanjali's biggest assets are its students who have won numerous laurels to the school. They have become recipients of prestigious scholarships like the CCRT scholarship- instituted by the Govt. of India, Bharat Kalachar Scholarship, Iyal Isai Nataka Mandram Scholarship. They have also proved their mettle in various competitions conducted across India and abroad and won prizes in Cleveland Thyagaraja Festival, All India Dance Festival conducted by Kalamandir College of Fine Arts- Kannur, Nrithyathi Kalakshetram- Raipur, Navya Nataka Samiti- Hyderabad, Akhil Bharatiya Sanskrutik Sangh- Pune, Natyarangam Competition and Spirit of Youth competition- Music Academy, Chennai.

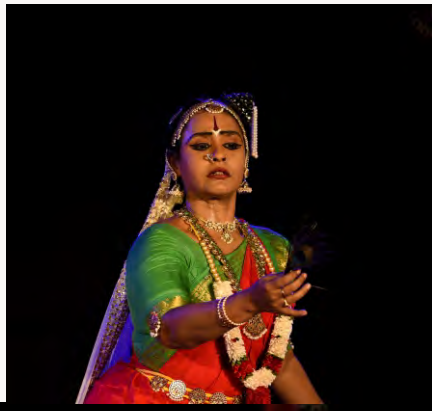

Students have been recipients of Dr. Padma Subramanian Endowment Award, VDS Best Dancer Award, Indian Fine Arts Best dancer, and Nalanda Nritya Nipuna award. We also have students who have completed their masters in Bharatanatyam and who are ranked as graded artists by Doordarshan Kendra. Many senior students of Divyanjali have become dance teachers of leading dance institutions and have begun their own dance schools across India and abroad – USA, UK and Singapore.

Divyanjali has conducted several workshops. Amongst them, Prayathanam's Parivarthanam is a notable one, where we had eminent speakers conducting workshops to our students.

A huge setback and strong come back

Divyanjali faced a huge setback in the year 2015 during the Chennai floods. We consider our choreographies in digital format, library books and musical instruments as our treasure. It was disheartening to lose all our treasures in the flood when our entire workspace was filled with 7ft. water. However, Divyanjali did not lose hope and revived in fullest acceleration with the help and support from many institutions and legends such as:

- ABHAI
- Music Academy
- Narada Gana Sabha
- Smt. Chithra Visveshwaran
- Smt. Nandhini Ramani
- Shri. Nellai Kannan
- Shri. C. V. Chandrasekhar
- Smt. Ambika Kameshwar
- Shri. Jaikishore Mosalikanti

Few more legends also extended their help and support whose identity has not been revealed based on their request. With the help of all these legends, Divyanjali is now fully equipped and has over 150 books for reference in its library contributed by Smt. Nandhini Ramani. Divyanjali will always stay grateful to all these noble hearts without whom the revival would have been much more difficult.

Enchanting performances

Dr. S. Divyasena has composed and presented several group dance productions, all over India and abroad, which have earned high acclaim. Divyanjali's notable productions include:

- Tribute to Lalgudi G. Jayaraman
- Krishna Margam
- Nrithya Nataka Mala
- Jai Hanuman
- Moondrum Moondrum Moondru
- Puratchi Manddhar
- Laya Thrayam
- Pannum Bharathamum
- Thrayee
- Ramana Vaibhavam
- Veeram
- Nava Vidha Sambandham
- Andal Vaibhavam
- Annamayya Navarasa Nrityamala
- Shiva Sakthi Margam
- Dasavatharam
- Thirumurugaatrupadai
- Sita Kalyanam
- Paasurapadi Ramayanam

It is indeed our pride to mention that Divyanjali's grand production "Andal Vaibhavam" was presented across India in 13 different stages during the same year.

Performances Abroad:

Divyanjali's prominent performances abroad include Cleveland Thyagaraja Festival & 'Nrithya Nataka Mala Tour' in the USA, Navarathri Festival in Bangkok & Singapore and performances in Dubai, UK, Australia and Sri Lanka.

Creative Endeavors:

The dance school has actively hosted lecture demonstrations, workshops, and summer camps for its students. Dr. S. Divyasena compiled the Adavus of Bharatanatyam and released an audio CD titled "Nrithyaharam" to help aspiring students to practice on their own.
Divyanjali inaugurated its own platform in the year 2017 for providing opportunities to young deserving artists to perform under the auspices of Divyanjali's "Kalarpanam". Divyanjali also hosted "Sangeet International Festival" in collaboration with All India Dancers Association (AIDA), in the year 2018, which featured both music and dance performances of various styles.
Divyanjali published book on 'Essence and essentials of Rhythm' authored by BP Haribabu and Duta Mahima authored by Dr S Divyasena

Media Presence:

Divyanjali is privileged to have media presence in Jaya TV, Sun TV, Star Vijay, Makkal TV, Podhigai and Raj TV. Divyanjali has also featured performances in online channels such as Kavasam web TV and Rasa Web channel.

Completing 30 Glorious Years of Divine Offerings

Divyanjali Dance School has conducted 71 Arangetrams so far with the 70th in the year 2026. As of 2024, Divyanjali had completed 30 years of functioning since establishment. To mark the Silver Jubilee celebrations, Divyanjali conducted Dance festivals, Lecture demonstrations, workshops, and competitions, month on month, under the banner "Nrithya Utsav" between July 2019 and February 2020.

Achievement is a combination of various factors like having the right attitude, flexibility, adaptability, belief in oneself, willingness to learn and faith in the powers of the unseen hand.

I appreciate your achievement in successfully completing 25 years of service in art to uphold the Bharateeya Sanskruti.

I congratulate Sri.B.P. Haribabu for having authored a book of 'Rhythm' to be released on the 2nd of February 2020.

Smt. Nandini Ramani

Veteran Bharatanatyam Exponent

It gives me great joy to wish Smt. Divyasena and Sri Haribabu and all the disciples of Divyanjali on the occasion of its Silver Jubilee. Divyasena is a very talented performer and teacher whose hard work and commitment have brought her good recognition and respect in the Bharatanatyam scene. Many of her disciples are well trained dancers and have a great future. As one who has been following Divyasena from her young age as also her Divyanjali from inception, I am very happy to see her successful growth . I am very glad to wish her , Haribabu , her life partner and ace Mridangam artist who is the pillar of support to Divya, and the entire family of Divyanjali very successful , fruitful and eventful years ahead in dedication to Bharatanatyam. May Divyanjali shine like Gopura deepam spreading its divya kalaa jyoti in all quarters!

Sri. V V Sundaram

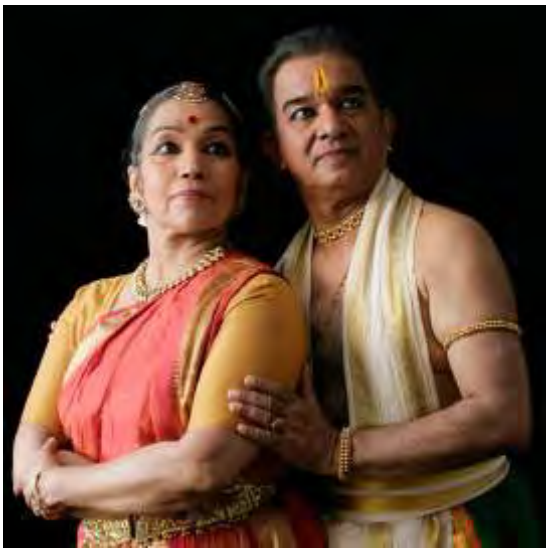

I am very happy that Divyanjali Dance School is completing 25 years of exemplary service to the cause of fine arts, specifically to Indian classical dance. Smt S. Divyasena and Sri B. P. Hari Babu who are the force behind this institution, have an enviable reputation in this field and have made a mark for themselves both as performers and teachers.

Smt Divyasena has impeccable artistic lineage having had her training in both bharatha natyam and kuchipudi from some of the greatest acharyas of our times – Dr. Vempati Chinna Satyam, Sri Kishore Mosalikanti, Smt Kalanidhi Narayanan and Sri J Suriyanarayana Murthy. Her intuitive and involved performances speak volumes of the understated elegance that she brings out. Her Abhinaya is never very overt but gives the essence of the Rasa while leaving some to the imagination of the audience, thus engaging them in constant communion with the artist. An erudite scholar would be delighted and profoundly moved by her portrayal whereas the less initiated would be awestruck by the pageantry she skillfully unfolds. Her innate sense of laya makes her nritta absolutely brilliant and a delight to watch. Her choreography which seamlessly blends both abhinaya and nritta even in an intricate scene would unfold like a blossoming flower with an ever present sense of wonder and artistic fulfillment.

Sri B. P. Hari Babu is an integral part of this artistic journey. The jathis he composes are intellectually challenging and aesthetically pleasing and a pleasure to see them naturally molded into the performances. Besides her revered gurus, having Sri Hari Babu as the life and artistic partner is the single best blessings of Smt. Divyasena. Her performances and productions are considerably enhanced because of this synergy.

Smt. Divyasena has a great reputation as an acharya. Her dance school has about 100 students and a good many of them have made a mark for themselves as classical dancers. Her students have won prizes in the Cleveland Thyagaraja Festival and have participated in some of our productions with great distinction.

Our very best wishes to Smt Divyasena, Sri Hari Babu and Divyanjali Dance School and we pray the Almight that they be bestowed with all His graces to continue their contributions for years to come with the same unflinching loyalty to artistic traditions.

Dear Divyasena & Haribabu,

I am delighted to see the invitation to the Silver Jubilee Celebrations of your institution, Divyanjali. There is a special moment of nostalgia as I look back to that day, twenty-five years ago, when I inaugurated this very institution. You have come a long way since then, giving of yourselves & your art to many a youngster. Indeed, many are the proficient dancers & noteworthy productions that you have created ....one added feather in your cap will be the book that is being released on the occasion.

My very best wishes & blessings for an even brighter & meaningful future.

It gives me great joy to wish Divyanjali School of Dance all the best on the occasion of their Silver Jubilee celebrations. What is to be celebrated is not so much the number of years that the institution has seen but the quality of students and work that it has turned out over the passage of time and their innumerable contributions in the form of performances, productions, lecture demonstrations and publications. Divyasena is a consummate artist with a firm grounding in the theory and practice of Bharatanatyam and Kuchupudi, having trained under stalwarts in the field. Having watched her consistently from the year 2000, I have seen the transformation of this young danseuse into a lovely artist, teacher and choreographer. What is wonderful about Divyasena is the way in which she thinks of her family beyond herself, her extended family of students beyond her own family and the fraternity of artists beyond her own institution. Behind the innocent smiling face is strong woman who has braved many a storm in life. I wish Divyasena and her husband, the versatile mridangist P.Hari Babu, who have walked together every step of their artistic journey a lot of good health and strength to carry on with their vision in life. May God bless Divyanjali with years of fruitful service in the field of art.

Sri. Srikanth Gopalakrishnan - Singer

My association with Divyanjali goes from October 2005 to be precise. Divyasena and Haribabu are such hard working couple brimming with energy, inspiring people and proving a popular saying in kannada " Kaayakave Kailaasa " meaning " Work is God ".
Apart from being artists par excellence, Divya and Hari are known for their extensive philonthropic work.
Celeberating 25years of service to the art , I congratulate and wish Divyasena, Haribabu and the entire family of Divyanjali many more years of dancing.

Sathgrubhyo Namaha!
I would like to congratulate Divyanjali & the founder Dr. S. Divyasena as she has touched 25 years. This is great achievement, indeed. I have known her for the past two decades. I appreciate her hard work and sincerity. She has a brilliant approach in Layam. She is a very patient, brilliant and kind teacher. She has students all over the globe. Her standard is very good. I wish Divyanjali to celebrate their 50th, 75th and 100th Anniversaries. Her husband, Shri B P Haribabu is an excellent mridangist and accompaniment for both vocal and Natya. He has been an excellent support. All her family members are involved in Divyanjali.
With great help from family, students and parents, Divyanjali is shining brightly and I am very proud of them. It is not easy to produce 25 Natya productions in these 25 years. Great efforts and research has gone behind all of that. She takes guidance from learned people and produces a wholesome Natya Natakam. My prayers to the Almighty to shower blessings on Divyasena, Haribabu, their family, their students, the staff and all those who have helped Divyanjali and I pray for their good health. May Divyanjali grow more and more. My heartfelt congratulation to them and my hearty blessings to Divyasena.

They say - “One who expresses one's self through dance is a dancer. One who expresses one's self through a dancer is a dance teacher”. A few are selected to express that bliss by dancing themselves, and other few are selected to express that joy through their students. What if it is a rare combo of both?!! And that is what Smt. Divyasena is! (Divyakka for me). Working hard pays off and she is a standing example to that. I have personally witnessed how she imparts her knowledge to the students and thereby tapping the best from them. The respect she has gained over these years in the dance fraternity is incredible! On this occasion of the 25th anniversary, I wish 'Divyanjali' perennial success. May your contributions continue!

'Aesthetics' means a set of principles concerned with the nature and appreciation of beauty. Sri Haribabu (Hari Anna for me) can easily be called 'Mr. Aesthetics' in all sense! Personally, I have nicknamed him as - 'Rasa Raja'!!! Right from the days of working together for dance performances, as a singer, I have always admired and relished every stroke of his Mridangam playing! It was indeed a 'stroke of luck' to have worked with him! The unparalleled dynamics and incredible versatility he emoted based on the variations in my singing was priceless!
Be it cracking jokes or handling the padams while performing, his artistic taste has always been the best. He is not only a pillar in Divyasena's personal journey but also in their artistic journey together. His upcoming work 'Essence and Essentials of Thalam' is sure to be a hit as it has been created by an artist of essence!

All joy to you Hari Anna!

Dear Divya, 21st Jan 20

On behalf of Prayathnam, I would like to congratulate Divyanjali and you its founder for successfully completing 25 years of teaching and performance in the field of Bharatanatyam.

Prayathnam has been supported by your institution with active participation of students for our Yathnam exams since 2008 and Sri. Haribabu and yourself have been part of our Lecture demonstration series apart from the orientation programmes for the students.

Prayathnam has in turn collaborated with Divyanjali in December 2019 in conducting a day long seminar on Vachika Abhinaya which was well received by scholars, teachers and students.

I also extend our good wishes for the book on Talam and Nattuvangam written by Sri. Haribabu which I am sure will be appreciated by students and teachers alike.

Dear Divyasena

First and foremost, I want to congratulate you on establishing a wonderful dance school divyanjali and directing hundreds of students in this divine path for about 25 years. Hearty congratulations to Divyanjali for such brilliant achievement.

I know Divyasena from a very young age and she had been travelling to Bangkok since the establishment of Divyanjali from the year 1994. Her dedication is outstanding and her performances along with her students have always been a blissful experience for the people at Bangkok.

I personally consider Divyasena as a part of my family and I am happy that she along with her husband Haribabu have been great artists who have not only performed in India but also been extensively travelling to different countries across the globe.

Best wishes to the team of Divyanjali and looking forward to together celebrate many more accomplishments in the field of art.

Hearty appreciations and best wishes to Divyanjali!

I have known Divyasena as a young and bright dancer able to perform with ease, both Kuchipudi and Bharatanatyam for the past 20 years. Along with her own performing career, Divya took great interest in teaching, too and hence started Divyanjali.

It is heartening to see that this institution has now reached its landmark of 25 years and students who have benefited by classes, scholarships, awards and prizes are all coming together to celebrate this very important event.

Along with Divya is an effervescent Haribabu, who has given his best of talents and support to this institution which has grown both quantitatively and qualitatively in these years.

Apart from dance and music, Divyasena has also added her contribution to this field by way of publishing books, which are very important to the next generation in absorbing inputs on natya, alongside practical dancing. Her many productions in these years have also been noteworthy and admired by stalwarts and rasikas

I heartily wish Divyanjali, Divyasena and Haribabu on this landmark, and offer my sincere prayers to Mother Goddess for her good health and more accolades to come in the years to come!

Nadanalaya is delighted to have had a strong and warm association with Smt. Divyasena since her first visit to Melbourne, Australia, in 2013. It gives us great pleasure in hearing that Smt. Divyasena, along with her Divyanjali institution, will be celebrating their silver jubilee year marking the success of their journey in the dance field thus far.

To begin, grow and sustain as a Bharathanatyam dance school in a city immersed in fine arts, for an extensive period of 25 years is indeed a milestone that cannot be overlooked. We have witnessed the many fine talents that Divyanjali has produced through the unparallel guidance of Smt. Divyasena and hope to see many more such exquisite dancers to come.

On behalf of Nadanalaya Academy I, Meena Elankumaran, send my heartfelt prayers to Smt. Divyasena, Sri Hari Babu and all the students of Divyanjali Dance School, wishing them prosperity and growth for the years to come.

On the occasion of 25 years of the formation of 'Divyanjali' by the talented and versatile dancer Divyasena, I would like to extend my heartfelt congratulations and deep appreciation for the yeoman service done by her and the school for our classical dances and the support provided to fellow artists in the field of bharatanatyam.

Divyasena's and Divyanjali's contribution to the field of classical dance is noteworthy. Apart from conducting festivals and collaborating with artists, the hallmark of Divyasena's dance productions are the creativity in thematic shows, excellent choreography and execution.

Divyasena has been running the international festival 'Nrithya Sangamam' for the true love of our classical dance forms. The festival provides a platform to showcase the talent of artists from various parts of the world.

I would like to thank Divyasena for providing me an opportunity to perform at the festival at a time when I am returning back to my solo performances after a long hiatus owing to my commitments to my dance school and productions. I feel extremely privileged to have been part of the silver jubilee celebration of Divyanjali school of dance.

Wishing Divyasena and Divyanjali many more glorious years of service to our divine art form.

Dance of the DYNASTIES

ROYALTY The contribution of some of the most influential kings of South India will be highlighted at this year's Satyarangam, on from July 29.

MARCH 7, FRIDAY

Glimpses of history

A lecture-demonstration on natya-kala, where its nuances and myriad concepts were shared, was held at Dakshinamurthy Hall, Mylapore. Stalwarts in the field of Bharatnatyam and Kuchipudi took part in it. It was organised jointly by Divyanjali institute of Bharatanatyam of dancer Divyanjali and Guru Mukundapria. The lecture was delivered by Bharatnatyam exponent V.P. Dhananjayan and the demonstration was done by Kuchipudi artiste Kishore Moseilikant. With an aim to enlighten young learners of the art the event saw the young outnumbering the old. "This is definitely a good sign," said Dhananjayan. Elaborating further on Natya as a living art, he said, "It is a concept that involves the body, mind and spirit. Hence, our classical and traditional forms cannot be termed as mere 'dance' as it has a lot more to it than just moving your hands and legs." The event saw more demonstration in the second half. Kishore Moseilikant began with the history of Kuchipudi. Since Kuchipudi is still evolving, Kishore concluded his demonstration with an experimental presentation of a varnam using a 'tharangam,' the plate that is an important part of Kuchipudi.

DIPAVALI 2004

Des milliers de personnes

Dix chars et plus de 1 500 participants, le défilé du Dipavali a attiré hier soir des milliers de personnes, dans la ville de Saint-André, sur un trajet balisé par les fleurs et les flammes. Chaque association a bichonné son char et ses artistes, en particulier ses danseuses ; jusqu'à la dernière minute.

Il est quinze heures. Les chars du Dipavali quittent l'atelier municipal, à Ravine Creuse. Jusqu'au dernier moment, les associations chargées de les présenter au public fanent des pétales jaunes et orange autour de statues et accrochent des guirlandes de fleurs, des milliers d'œillets d'Inde, autour des tracteurs.

La police ouvre et ferme ce convoi très exceptionnel, direction la piscine où débutera le cortège. Pour éloigner le mauvais œil, les hommes font des signes et brisent des noix de cocos à l'avant des tracteurs.

« Tout est prêt, mais la tension, on la garde jusqu'au bout, il faudra intervenir vite au moindre problème, nous on espère juste qu'il n'y en aura pas», déclare Easwar Pandeeswaran, responsable des chars. Chaque œuvre pèse au minimum 1 300 kilos.

1 500 personnes, musiciens, danseurs et autres participent au défilé. « Ils viennent de toute l'île», précise Easwar Pandeeswaran, « c'est la mairie qui s'occupe des chars mais ils ne sont pas réservés aux associations de Saint-André ».

Les invités de l'Inde – sans qui le Dipavali de Saint-André serait moins savoureux – seront également au cœur du défilé.

Le soleil a brillé toute la matinée. Mais depuis midi, la pluie farine ça et là, disparaît et revient... Si à 18 heures, il pleut pour de bon, les officiels vont grimacer, ce qui ne va pas du tout avec la fête de la lumière. Chacun s'en remet à la volonté divine.

Aux couleurs de l'Inde

« Si Dieu veut, le défilé aura bien lieu», sourit le responsable des chars. En tout cas, la population est confiante. L'ambiance Dipavali, fierté de Saint-André, est à son maximum le jour du défilé. On voit des saris neufs à chaque coin de rue, les bracelets sonnent autour des poignets et des chevilles.

Pour éviter les embouteillages des chars entre Ravine Creuse et la Balance, les automobilistes rusent. Au bout du périple Rivière-du-Mât-les Bas – Chemin Valentin, on croise respectueusement une procession. Et on attend. Noix de cocos, pétales de fleurs, feu, encens et tambours. C'est le grand défilé et le marché indien qui sont arrivés les derniers. A Saint-André, la foi et les rituels ont toujours réuni les familles.

L'heure avance, il faut régler les derniers détails. 36 associations participent au Dipavali de Saint-André. Parmi elles, Natya Kalamani. Sa présidente Lynda Sellom a l'air sereine. Entre deux appels téléphoniques, elle coud, attribue un costume, un accessoire à tel ou tel élève. Natya Kalamani à l'honneur de guider le char « Les tenues vestimentaires ». Autour d'un grand palais, « nous allons présenter les différents styles de costumes de danses de cinq régions de l'Inde», résume Lynda Sellom. Les tenues ont été fabriqués en Inde même, la plupart pour le dernier spectacle de l'association, « Mardévirin ».

« Elèves respectueux »
